Here's an update on the progress to date for the new Wheatland Lodge and Hospice in Strathmore, Alberta.

Where We Are At:

- Berry Architecture has completed five virtual Community Engagement sessions which were very well attended and provided great input and direction for the project. Sessions focused on five topics: site context; common amenities; neighbourhoods and suites; hospice care; and summary of what we heard.
- Based on the community engagement input, we are proposing to locate the new lodge on the undeveloped industrial land to the east of Kinsmen Lake.
- We have been working with the Wheatland Hospice Society to ensure that local residents have an excellent facility for end of life care.
- We are currently refining project elevations for the new lodge.
- We are planning to hold another community meeting on May 13th at 7:00 p.m. to update the region on the project's progress to this point. Click on the Zoom link below to join.
